

FEE BROTHERS GIN BARREL-AGED ORANGE BITTERS

SKU: LIFBAO

A family business since 1864, Fee Brothers is now owned and operated by Ellen and Joe Fee, the fourth generation. Fee Brothers' product portfolio is the result of more than a century of perfecting beverage ingredients. Today, their line-up overflows with more than 90 varieties -- from classic bitters, mixes and cordials, to their newest coffee flavours and botanical waters.

Oak barrels, which aged Old Tom Gin, take on a second life at Fee Brothers. They now age Orange Bitters, mingling it with gin-soaked oak. Crafting Orange Bitters has just been elevated to new heights.
