

CARRAMIMBRE ALTAMIMBRE

SKU: SWCALT

Carramimbre, or 'wicker path' in ancient Spanish, is the name of one of the vineyards owned by Bodegas Pignon in the Ribera del Duero; situated at the bottom of a short hill, where an ancient castle still stands. Some of the vines here are as old as 50 years old.

The vineyards sit on the 'Golden Mile' of the Ribera del Duero (which is, in fact, 15km long) stretching along the Duero valley from the town of Peñafiel, down to Tudela de Duero. Here, the Bodegas rubs shoulders with many prestigious and iconic neighbours (Alion, Vega Sicilia etc)

Tasting Notes: A powerful taste, full-bodied, balanced with well-merged tannins and a great persistence wine. There are hints of toast, candies and raisins.
