

ARGÜESO MANZANILLA LAS MEDALLAS

SKU: SHAMLM

Bodegas Argüeso is a historic Sherry producer reborn and revived. Located in coastal Sanlúcar de Barremeda, it was founded by León de Argüeso y Argüeso in 1822. Originally from Burgos in the North of Spain, he settled in Sanlúcar and acquired an old solera from the bodega San José in Santo Domingo, with an estimated age of over 250 years.

As specialists in the Manzanilla Sherries for which Sanlúcar is famous, Les Medallas is a Manzanilla that has aged under flor for 3 years, giving a classic, delicate, elegant profile, with floral notes and a salty tang. Serve well chilled as the locals would, as an aperitif.

