

VEUVE CLICQUOT RICH

SKU: CHVCRICH

In 1805, Madame Clicquot, a young widow of 27 years, took over the reins of the House founded in Reims in 1772 and became one of the first business women in history. Audacious and visionary, she made her Champagne known to the world. Know How & Craftsmanship:

For over 200 years, the House has stayed true to its motto: 'Only one quality, the finest'. A consistency in style: complex & powerful with Pinot Noir predominance.

Served over ice with a garnish of either cucumber, pepper or pineapple, Veuve Clicquot Rich offers a new way of drinking champagne.
