

CUSQUEÑA GOLD LAGER OUT OF DATE 08 12 24

SKU: DLBBCU

From the heart and heights of an ancient Andean civilisation, Cusqueña is a super-premium quality lager, brewed since 1908. On October 1st, 1908, a group of entrepreneurs led by Ernesto Günther founded Cervecería Alemana in the city of Cusco; it was here that the story of Cusqueña began.

Produced with only the finest natural ingredients near the mystical lost city of Machu Picchu in Peru; Cusqueña is crafted from the purest mountain water from a source at 18,000 feet in the Andes, with a combination of 100% barley malt, caramel malt and the finest aromatic saaz hops.

It's a crisp, pure, totally refreshing and the finest premium lager from Latin America.

Tasting Notes: An intense golden colour and exquisite flavour with sweet and citric notes, which are achieved by the mixing of caramel malts, aromatic Saaz hops and the purest of water. Its carefully selected ingredients is what makes Cusqueña an international quality beer.

Food Matching: Ideal for appetisers, white meats and moderately spicy food.
