

GERMANA TRADITIONAL CACHAÇA MINIATURE

SKU: RUGER005

Germana Traditional Cachaça captures the essence of Brazil with its authentic craftsmanship. Made from freshly harvested sugarcane and distilled in traditional copper pot stills, this cachaça is aged in Brazilian hardwood barrels for a smooth, complex profile. Aromas of fresh sugarcane and tropical fruit lead to a palate with sweet cane, ripe banana, and delicate spice. The warm, lingering finish features subtle woody notes. Perfect for sipping neat, on the rocks, or in classic cocktails like the Caipirinha, Germana Traditional Cachaça delivers a true taste of Brazilian heritage in every sip.
