

IL POGGI COLLI TORTONESI TIMORASSO VOLO SUL POGGIO

SKU: ITIPGVSP

Run by the energetic Francesca Poggio, Il Poggio is a family run sustainably focused winery in the heart of Gavi DOCG, a tranquil and harmonious environment on the magical Rovereto hill, located in the Piedmont region in the north of Italy. Francesca left her previous job as an estate agent in Milan to return to the family farm and grow grapes, on a prime hillside which had been donated by her relatives at the neighbouring Gavi icon La Scolca. It would be fair to say that Francesca's wines now reach similar levels to those of her famous neighbour. The home vineyards are worked organically, with great care taken to maximise biodiversity in the vineyard.
