A tradition built on centuries-old family recipes, natural ingredients, and an unwavering dedication to craftsmanship. As a proud member of Les Henokiens, an exclusive club of bicentenary family businesses, Nardini has upheld its heritage for over two centuries, preserving the essence of a product cherished worldwide. Since its founding, Nardini has remained deeply connected to its origins, honouring a legacy that continues to inspire. Over 200 years of history have made this name synonymous with quality, tradition, and the true spirit of Italy. Often called “the noble cousin of limoncello,” Acqua di Cedro is a refined, grappa-based liqueur crafted from the peel of the Cedro lemon. Stripping away excess sugar, it offers a purer, more sophisticated citrus experience. The Cedro fruit, sourced mainly from the Lake Garda region, lends its aromatic skin to create a crystalline liqueur with an enticing balance of sweetness and a crisp, dry finish.
