

COLINAS DE LISBOA RED

SKU: PWCDLR

Portugal is one of the most exciting wine-producing countries today, and we are very pleased to be able to bring this delicious red blend over from its homeland. What makes Portugal so wonderful for a wine-lover is the variety of its wines. There is truly something for everyone, whether your tastes lean more towards a luscious, well-aged vintage Port, a fresh and crisp Vinho Verde, or a structured and fruity dry red wine. We strongly believe that everyone will be able to enjoy this wine, as well! Colinas de Lisboa is a fantastic producer from the Lisboa wine-growing region surrounding Portugal's capital. The warm climate is tempered by breezes that blow in from the cooler Atlantic, meaning the wines achieve a perfect balance of ripeness and freshness. Their red blend incorporates both well-known international varieties and indigenous Portuguese grapes; it harmoniously integrates the structured, cassis-dominant Cabernet Sauvignon with the rich and spicy Castelao and Touriga Nacional.
