

LUXARDO SAMBUCA POMEGRANATE

SKU: LISLP

Luxardo Sambuca Pomegranate Liqueur is a contemporary take on the classic Italian aniseed digestif, crafted by Luxardo—a seventh-generation family-owned producer known for its commitment to traditional methods. The base is Luxardo's original Sambuca, made with green Sicilian aniseed and elderberries from Padua, then distilled and matured in Finnish wood vats to enhance smoothness and complexity.
