

LINDORES ABBEY FRIAR JOHN COR CHAPTER 3

SKU: MWLAFJC3

Founded on the site of the first recorded mention of whisky in 1494, Lindores Abbey is steeped in historical significance. The Friar John Cor releases are named for the Tironensian monk who was granted malt to make “aqua vitae” for the king. Each release in this small-batch series is an exploration of flavour, heritage, and cask influence. Chapter 3, or “Corrugation,” is particularly defined by the way it marries vibrant wood influence with the house’s supple, malty distillate.
