

FEBE TREBBIANO D'ABRUZZO

Constantini, who make the Febe wines, have been making wine in Abruzzo for over a century starting back in 1910. A constant aim over the last 100 years was for the family to make better quality wines every vintage, while respecting the historic landscape and investing in the vineyard and cellar.

Antonio Costantini leads the family company today, and attributes the high quality of the wines to the fantastic micro climate he works in stretching from the Gran Sasso Mountains to the Adriatic Sea.
